Iran: Continued Killing of Kolbars by NAJA in Boarder Areas

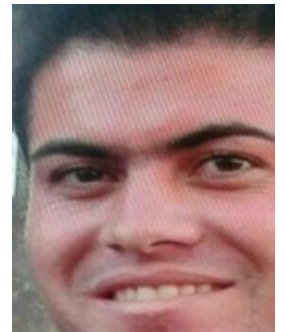

21.11.2017

Iranian disciplinary forces (NAJA) killed and wounded three Kurdish Kulbars yesterday.

“On the evening of November 20, 2017, a number of kulbars in the Shaanayi Sheikh border region were targeted by Iranian security forces without prior warning. As a result, a kulbar was killed and at least two others were injured.” An informed source told Kurdistan Human Rights Network (KHRN).

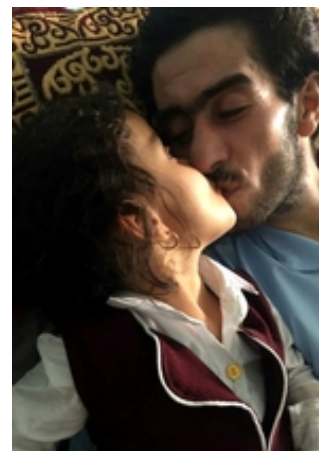

According to this source, the Kurdish Kulbar known as Hassan Moradi (from Aminabad village of Piranshahr) was killed while two other Kulbars called Semko Ahmadi and Rahman Mahmoodnejad were wounded during the shooting. The wounded Kulbars were taken to the hospital and are currently undergoing treatment.
