According to a representative of the Foundation for Iranian Studies in Bethesda, Maryland, the Sepah Sarallah is a unit of the Disciplinary Force (created from a merger of the police, the kommittees and the gendarmerie), which is in charge of the anti-corruption campaign; its patrols deal with violators of government-defined Islamic social values (11 Aug. 1993).

Additional and/or corroborating information on the above subject is currently unavailable to the DIRB.
